

FEBRUARY ATAGLANCE

Valentine's Day

"And now these three remain: faith, hope, and love. But the greatest of these is love." - 1 Corinthians 13:13 (NIV)

In a world where love is often portrayed as fleeting emotions or material gestures, scripture reminds us of a deeper, enduring love. The Apostle Paul highlights that among faith, hope, and love, the greatest is love. This isn't just any love; it's a love that is patient, kind, not envious, boastful, proud, or rude. It always protects, trusts, hopes, and perseveres (1 Corinthians 13:4-7).

This Valentine's Day, let's reflect on God's boundless love for us, demonstrated through Jesus Christ's sacrifice. His love is unconditional, selfless, and eternal. As we receive this love, we are called to share it with others. True love is a reflection of God's love, transforming and uplifting us. May our actions today and every day echo this divine love, pointing our clients to our Father and His plans for a pro-abundant life for them and their families.
